

Entangled Interactions between Religions and National Identities in the Space of the Former Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth

Date | August 22-23, 2016
Place | Lithuanian Institute of History
Language | English

Day 1: August 22

9:00-10:00 Opening

10:00-12:30 Session 1: From pre-modern to modern religious consciousnesses in the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth

Satoshi Koyama (Japan) | Protestantism and Catholicism in the Political Context in the Early Modern Era

Chiho Fukushima (Japan) | Uniate Martyr Josaphat and His Role as a Confessionalizing/Nationalizing Element

Barbara Skinner (US) | In the Orthodox Fold: Conversion and Culture in Russia's Western Borderlands

12:30-14:00 Lunch break

14:00-17:30 Session 2: The Russian Empire and National Consciousnesses

Yoko Aoshima (Japan) | The Orthodox Faith Emerging as an Imperial Ideology in the Russian Empire

Kenshi Fukumoto (Japan) | Religion, Citizens, and Nationalism in Crisis: A Case-study of Łódź

Aliaksandr Bystryk (Belarus) | Praising Christ, Serving the Nation: The Ideology of the Catholic Newspaper Bielarus

Vladimir Levin (Israel) | Jewish Religion in the Russian Empire: From Support to Persecution

Day 2: August 23

9:00-10:30 Session 3: The Relationship between National and Religious Consciousness in Lithuania

Olga Mastianica (Lithuania) | Nobility in the Lithuanian National Project

Vilma Žaltauskaitė (Lithuania) | The Notion of Lithuanian National Identity and Roman Catholic Clergy

10:45-15:15 Session 4: The Hapsburg Empire and National Consciousnesses

Włodzimierz Osadczy (Poland) | Lost Ruthenia: The Decline and Consequence of Ukrainian Russophilism

Taku Shinohara (Japan) | Transformation of Barok Festivity into National Culture in Nineteenth-century Bohemia

12:15-13:45 Lunch break

Ostap Sereda (Ukraine) | Ritual-purification Movement and the Emerging Ukrainian National Identity

Dominika Rank (Ukraine) | Building Nationalism: St. Elisabeth Church in Lemberg

15:45-17:00 Closing Remarks

Darius Staliūnas (Lithuania)

Alexey Miller (Russia)

Sponsors

Mitsubishi Foundation | "A Social History of Cultural Interactions among Nations of the Eastern Part of Europe"

Japan Society for the Promotion of Science | "Constructing Otherness and Reconstructing Spatial Orders in Eastern Borderlands of Europe"

Japan Society for the Promotion of Science | "Formation of Modern Russian Nationalism through Interactions with Nations of the Western Part of the Russian Empire"

Organizers

Yoko Aoshima, Taku Shinohara, and Darius Staliūnas, with the cooperation of the Lithuanian Institute of History

Contact

Darius Staliūnas (dariuso1108@gmail.com)

Address

Lithuanian Institute of History | Kražių g. 5, Vilnius, LT-01108